Processing Information: The Arnold R. Rich Collection was processed by Chesney Medical Archives volunteer Dr. Francis Milligan in 2003-2004 and 2013, under the direction of Phoebe Evans Letocha. In 2004, Medical Archives student assistant Ian Zhang entered the collection inventory into the Chesney Medical Archives catalog.

Collection Overview

Extent: 26 cubic feet (59 boxes)

Creator: Rich, Arnold R. (Arnold Rice), 1893-1968

Administrative/Biographical History:

Arnold R. Rich

28 Mar 1893-17 Apr 1968

Arnold R. Rich was born in Birmingham, Alabama. He attended the University of Virginia, where he received his B.A. in 1914 and his M.A. in 1915. Rich received his M.D. from the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in 1919 and was then appointed assistant in pathology. In 1944, he was promoted to professor of pathology and in 1947 he was named the Baxley Professor of Pathology and director of the department. He also served at the Johns Hopkins Hospital for nearly 40 years, retiring as pathologist-in-chief in 1958. He conducted research on bacterial allergy and immunity, hypersensitivity, serum sickness, jaundice, and tuberculosis. His book Pathogenesis of Tuberculosis became the standard text in the field.

Chronology: 1919-1968 - Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
1920-1958 - Johns Hopkins Hospital

Scope and Content:

The Arnold R. Rich Collection spans much of his career at Johns Hopkins. It contains family material, correspondence files, departmental administrative records, unpublished manuscripts, journal reprints, index cards, notes, and slides from Rich's lectures. The family material includes correspondence with Rich's parents and with his wife, as well as a few original poems by his daughter, Adrienne. Correspondents represented in departmental and general correspondence include William Welch, William MacCallum, and Florence Sabin. Articles and reference materials cover subjects such as tuberculosis, jaundice, and congenital diseases.
