Creator: Hurd, Henry M. (Henry Mills), 1843-1927

Administrative/Biographical History:

Henry M. Hurd
3 May 1843-19 Jul 1927

Henry Mills Hurd was born in Union City, Michigan. He received his A.B. in 1863 and his M.D. in 1866, both from the University of Michigan. After a brief time in general practice and work in dispensaries in Chicago and New York City, he embarked upon a career in psychiatry and hospital administration. From 1870 to 1878, he served as assistant physician for the Michigan Asylum for the Insane and from 1878 to 1889 as medical superintendent of Eastern Michigan Asylum.

He was appointed the first superintendent of the Johns Hopkins Hospital shortly after it opened in 1889 and remained there until his retirement in 1911. Hurd also served on the faculty of psychiatry at the school of medicine. He played a significant role in guiding the early development of the Johns Hopkins Hospital and the Johns Hopkins Hospital Training School for Nurses. Under his leadership the Hospital secured its reputation as the first modern teaching hospital. Hurd organized its program in resident education. He stimulated the house staff and established avenues for continuing medical education such as the Bulletin of the Johns Hopkins Hospital, the Library, the Journal Club, and the Historical Club.

As the leading American expert on hospital organization and management, Hurd traveled on tours of European hospitals. Hurd served as editor of Modern Hospital from 1913 to 1920. He continued his research in psychiatry. He oversaw the publication of the Institutional Care of the Insane in the United States and Canada in 1917. He served as editor of the American Journal of Insanity from 1897 until 1920. He was also involved with the Eudowood Sanitarium.
