Processing Information: The Church Home and Hospital Nursing Photographs and Audio-Visual Media Record Group was organized and catalogued by Ruth Carver and Mary Dzwonchuk in 2010 through a grant from the Church Home and Hospital Nurses Alumni Association .

Collection Overview

Scope and Content:

The photograph and audio-visual collection of the Church Home and Hospital Nursing Collection is particularly strong in personal papers and social activities. A series of class photographs from 1909 to 1976 document most of the school's graduates.

Accruals Description: 2008-029, 2010-137

Table of Contents

- Series Audio materials
- Series Buildings
- Series Class Photographs
- Series Images from Ensign on the Hill
- Series Individuals and Groups
- Series Social and Cultural Events

Scope and Content: Includes Glee Club recordings

Series : Buildings

Scope and Content: The Buildings series contains a photo album from the 1922 construction of the service building. See also the images used in Ensign on a Hill which includes both interior and exterior shots of Church Home and Hospital.

Bound volume : Construction Photo Album - 1922

Scope and Content: Perhaps created by Margaret Elliott, this album consists of photographs of construction occurring at the Church Home and Infirmary in 1922. The interior and exterior photographs document the construction of the Service Building throughout the year from foundation to near completion.
