Processing Information: The Ernest Stebbins Correspondence, Dean's Office, Johns Hopkins University School of Hygiene and Public Health was initially processed with the rest of the records of the Johns Hopkins University School of Hygiene and Public Health under a grant from the National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC grant 1979-119). Ruth Anne Becker, Harold Kanarek, and Gerard Shorb processed the records and created a finding aid in 1979-1980. Chesney Medical Archives student assistants Isaac Finkelstein, Emma Graf, Jason Ho, and Kaitlin Warnock inventoried the sub-series under the direction of Phoebe Evans Letocha in 2010 and indexed correspondent names within the sub-series.

Collection Overview

Creator: Stebbins, Ernest L. (Ernest Lyman), 1901-1987

Administrative/Biographical History:

Ernest L. Stebbins
25 Dec 1901-30 Apr 1987

Ernest L. Stebbins was born in Oelwein, Iowa. He attended Drake University and Dartmouth College, receiving his B.S. from Dartmouth in 1925. He entered Dartmouth Medical College but transferred to Rush Medical College at the University of Chicago, where he received his M.D. in 1929. After serving as a hospital intern and resident surgeon in Chicago, Stebbins came to Baltimore and earned his M.P.H. from the Johns Hopkins University School of Hygiene and Public Health in 1932. First appointed as an epidemiologist and health officer in Virginia and New York, he later worked as both New York City health commissioner and a professor at Columbia University before joining the faculty of the Johns Hopkins University School of Hygiene and Public Health in 1946. Stebbins was director of the school of hygiene and public health from 1946 until 1958 and dean from 1958 to 1967. He was named dean emeritus in 1967 and professor emeritus in 1972. Stebbins was also an advisor to the World Health Organization and a consultant to the Agency for International Development, the U.S. Air Force, and the U.S. Public Health Service.
